BUTTON-DAY SQUAD READY FOR FRAY

School Principals Receive
Consignments of Badges.

SELLERS WILL USE FREE AUTOS

New Orders Received at Headquarters of Playgrounds Association Yesterday From Leading Firms Assure Directors of Movement That the Contributions Will Increase.

The Playgrounds Association is reaping the reward of its generous labors in behalf of the children who enjoy the thirty-one playgrounds in the city. Otto Luebker, of the American Audit Company, has gathered up the ribbons, the workers are all up in the collar waiting for Monday morning, and then there will be some going.

The supervising principals of the various schools received the following letter and consignment of buttons from the secretary of the board of education yesterday:

Two thousand 10-cent buttons and 20 25-cent buttons will be delivered at your office, together with 100 badges, to be used by boys who desire to sell buttons on the streets. I am directed by the superintendent to state that boys who sell buttons upon the street may be ejected from school after 1 o'clock on Monday. Buttons are not to be sold until Monday, June 21, 1909.

Send all unsold buttons, full statement of the entire number sold, and a sum equal to 5 cents for each button sold to Mr. Otto Luebker, treasurer, at Button Day headquarters, 617 Fifteenth street northwest. Send all money received over the above amount of 5 cents for each button to H. O. Hines, treasurer of the school playground fund, Franklin School.

Prizes Offered.
For the division returning the highest amount of money playground equipment of $30 in value; to the building returning the highest amount of any building in the city, equipment of $5 in value; to the building in each division returning the highest amount of the division, equipment equal to $2 in value.

POLICE SEEK MISSING WOMAN.

Mrs. Hart, Sixty-eight Years Old, Lost for Two Weeks.

Mrs. Bernard F. Hart, sixty-eight years old, who has been missing from her home, at 41 O street northwest, for more than two weeks, is believed to be temporarily demented. Relatives do not think the woman will harm herself, but fear she has met with an accident or mishap.

An appeal was made to the police last night, and the various hospitals in Washington were searched. No patient answering a description of Mrs. Hart was found, and no patient of such a description had been received at the institutions.
